

Loneragan University College

announces its Interdisciplinary Seminar for 1985-1986:

The Works of Sigmund Freud

The Freud Seminars are under the direction of Dr. Russell Jacoby, who has written many papers and books on Freud. The Seminars (LUCC D399/3-6 credits or LUCC D398/4-3 credits) are held on Mondays from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and are open to all Concordia students. For further information call Loneragan University College (848-2280) or, better, drop in and see the College at 7302 Sherbrooke St. W., at the corner of West Broadway. You can be sure of a warm welcome.

Hysteria. Dreams. Libido. Sex. Narcissism. Oedipus Complex. Instinct. These are some of the topics that will be discussed at the 1985-86 Seminars devoted to the thought and influence of one of the great seminal thinkers of this Century. This is not a lecture course. The essence of Loneragan University College is to go beyond the discovery of what Freud actually did write and to submit his opinions to critical assessment by both Fellows and Students in the wider context of human thought. Was Freud's picture of women grotesque? Is there any justification for the expansion of Freudian psychology into cultural theory? Into politics? Into religion? Into Art?

Edvard Munch, 1895.
